FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Schuyl, Inc. creates First Job in the Pottsville/Schuylkill Technology Incubator

Pottsville, PA (Feb. 28, 2002) - Schuyl, Inc. has created the first job in the Pottsville/Schuylkill Technology Incubator. Based in the Pottsville/Schuylkill Technology Incubator in downtown Pottsville, Schuyl, Inc. is a new technology based business focused on provided technology solutions for area businesses.

Ms. Liana E. Evans has joined Schuyl, Inc. as the company's new Project Manager in the company's emerging efforts to bring quality technology solutions to the area. A graduate of Susquehanna University, Ms. Evans received her bachelor's degree in Information Systems in 1999. Ms. Evans also holds an Associate's Degree in Mass Communication from Pennsylvania College of Technology in Williamsport, PA and is a graduate of the Schuylkill Technology Centers Computer Technology Program.

A native and current resident of Frackville, PA, Ms. Evans returned to the Schuylkill County area after living and working in Herndon, Virginia and Houston, Texas. Experienced in Internet and Database technologies, project management and communications, Ms. Evans brings her knowledge and experiences to Schuyl, Inc.

Schuyl, Inc. is a new technology based business that has its roots from another well established technology oriented company, American Computer Associates, Inc, located in Frackville, PA. After seeing the needs of his company's clients begin to diversify into the Web Technology Solutions area, Mark Fanelli, president of ACAI, began Schuyl, Inc. Focused on providing a wide array of technology solutions from web application development, hosting, wireless email access solutions, to data back up services, Schuyl, Inc.'s goal is to make affordable, high quality, technology related solutions available to local businesses.

"Internet based products and services are globally marketable while keeping operations in Schuylkill County; this means we can keep jobs local as Schuyl, Inc. grows," Fanelli said.

Fanelli chose the Pottsville/Schuylkill Technology Incubator as the site of his new enterprise because the facility is located in downtown commercial district. "The employees Schuyl, Inc will attract want to be part of a thriving community. Schuyl, Inc. is designed to offer products and services that run and rely on the Internet and can be marketed globally and supported over the Internet by local people."
