Custom Embroidery Shop Launches Website

Pine Grove, PA – January 6, 2003 – Stitch-N-Design president, Rhonda Spittler announced the launch of the company's new website, www.stitchndesign.com. The website, designed and maintained by Schuyl, Inc. of Pottsville, features the unique and custom embroidery of the company.

The distinctive look to the site features a design of varying soft colors for each section of the site. Access to Stitch-N-Design's catalogs are also available on the website as well. Visitors to the site can browse through the custom embroidery designs as well as viewing Stitch-N-Design's 'wearables' catalog.

"With this site, our company can work with our clients a lot easier. Access to our catalogs is now available 24 hours, 7 days a week, so rather than depending on a paper catalog and business hours to pick it up in, our clients can browse any time they like. That's a huge benefit not just to our business but to our clients as well." Explained Spittler.

The company also works with custom logos and artwork for specialized business attire and events. Custom work for fundraising events can also be handled by Stitch-N-Design. Along with the catalogs, the company provides a contact form that is available as a 24-hour resource for Stitch-N-Design's customers both new and established.
